 1. You work one hour. I work two.
 2. I broke five command-ments you broke six. God
 3. I count nine times. You count ten. Com-

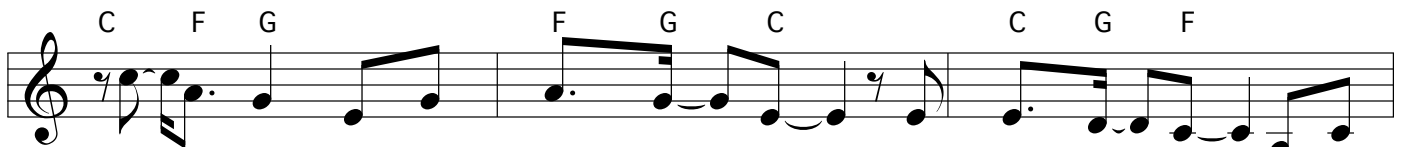

3
 Do you think that God loves me more than you?
 knows you have much more to fix.
 pare our fig-ures and then count them up a-gain.

 I gave three dol - lars. You gave four.
 I prayed sev'n pray - ers you prayed eight. I
 God is just, but God just ain't fair. God

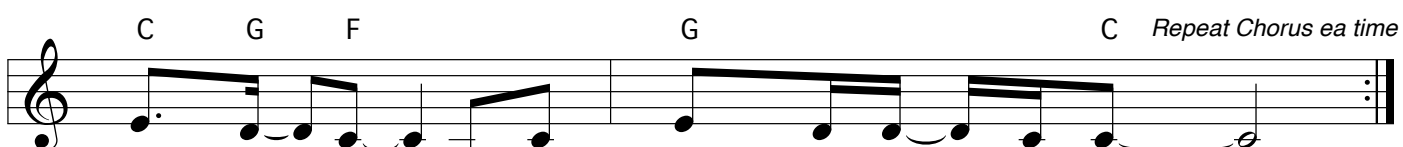

7
 Could it be that God just might love you more?
 s'pose that makes you think you're great.
 might keep score, but God real - ly does - n't care.

9
 Oh- my Lord, let's not play this game. God loves us all, and God loves us all the same. We don't have to com - pare or - blame. God

12

15
 loves us all and God loves us all the same. Repeat Chorus ea time
