Luther describes our life on this earth as a "_____". There is suffering. We must _____.

Conclusion: For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. AMEN

God will continue to restore with creative gifts, to establish us firmly when we _____ to give strength in times of _____, and to build us up on the firm foundation of the community of _____.

Luther: "You must always speak the "Amen" firmly. Never doubt that God in God's mercy will surely hear you and say "_____" to your prayers. Never think that you are kneeling or standing alone, rather think that the whole of Christendom, all devout _____, are standing there beside you.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and forever. Amen.

Our Father, which art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy Name;

Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven:

Give us this day our daily bread;

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us;

And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil:

For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,

For ever and ever. Amen
