Reformation Sunday

Call to Worship

Pastor: Gather us together this Reformation Sunday, O God, that we may celebrate the witness of our forefathers and foremothers and the courage that gave birth to the Reformation.

Congregation: Teach us how to honor the saints of God in ages past as well as in our present days.

Pastor: May the conviction of our grace written on their hearts be one that forms our own faith.

Congregation: Inspire us in the continuing reformation of the church and be present to us in word and sacrament. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

Welcome

Apostolic Greeting

Pastor: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Congregation: And also with you.

Confession

Have mercy on us, Lord, and hear our solemn prayer.
We come to hear your living word; it saves us from despair.

Have mercy on us, Christ, and wash away our sin.
Pour out your grace and make us whole that new life may begin.

Have mercy on us, Lord; make sin and shame depart.
Renew us with your saving power; create in us new hearts!

Absolution

Pastor: I declare to you that in Jesus Christ your sins are forgiven. God has done great things for us. Amen!

Prayer of the Day

Holy God, you have watched over the followers of Jesus for over 2,000 years. You have seen changes in worship styles, music, prayers and sermons. You have seen your people act with defiance like Adam and Eve and with jealousy like Cain against Abel. You have seen your people make bad choices and be leaders of the faith like Moses, David, Esther and Paul. You watched as Martin Luther presented 95 points of discussion on a door over 500 years ago and you gave him courage and bravery to speak out for justice and peace. Help us, O God, to listen to you and to watch as you work in this world. Help us to be flexible and support changes that facilitate ways of telling your story to all people and reaching out to your children everywhere. AMEN. (CWE)

First Reading Genesis 25:27-34

When the boys grew up, Esau was a skillful hunter, a man of the field, while Jacob was a quiet man, living in tents.²⁸ Isaac loved Esau, because he was fond of game; but Rebekah loved Jacob.²⁹ Once when Jacob was cooking a stew, Esau came in from the field, and he was famished. 30 Esau said to Jacob, “Let me eat some of that red stuff, for I am famished!” (Therefore he was called Edom.)³¹ Jacob said, “First sell me your birthright.”³² Esau said, “I am about to die; of what use is a birthright to me?”³³ Jacob said, “Swear to me first.” So he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob.³⁴ Then Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank, and rose and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

Response:

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34:1-8 (Read responsively)

- ¹I will bless the Lord at all times;
God's praise shall continually be in my mouth.
- ²My soul makes its boast in the Lord;
let the humble hear and be glad.
- ³O magnify the Lord with me,
and let us exalt God's name together.
- ⁴I sought the Lord, and God answered me,
and delivered me from all my fears.
- ⁵Look to God, and be radiant;
so your faces shall never be ashamed.
- ⁶This poor soul cried, and was heard by the Lord,
and was saved from every trouble.
- ⁷The angel of the Lord encamps
around those who fear God, and delivers them.
- ⁸O taste and see that the Lord is good;
happy are those who take refuge in God.

Pastor: The Psalm of the faithful.

Congregation: Praise the Lord!

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 17:22-27

²² As they were gathering in Galilee, Jesus said to them, “The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into human hands, ²³ and they will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised.” And they were greatly distressed.

²⁴ When they reached Capernaum, the collectors of the temple tax came to Peter and said, “Does your teacher not pay the temple tax?” ²⁵ He said, “Yes, he does.” And when he came home, Jesus spoke of it first, asking, “What do you think, Simon? From whom do kings of the earth take toll or tribute? From their children or from others?” ²⁶ When Peter said, “From others,” Jesus said to him, “Then the children are free. ²⁷ However, so that we do not give offense to them, go to the sea and cast a hook; take the first fish that comes up; and when you open its mouth, you will find a coin; take that and give it to them for you and me.”

Pastor: This the Gospel of the Lord. Congregation: Praise to you, O Christ.

Prayers of Intercession

Let us pray,

God of the healing power, you loved us before we were born and you continue to love us today. We know that you have not forgotten us. Help us to see how you enter our lives and weave yourself into our world as a beacon of hope.

This day we place in your hands those who are in need of care, healing, safety, food and shelter.

Hear our individual prayers as we say them aloud or in the silence of our hearts. (pause for the prayers of those gathered)

Gather our prayers in your arms, O God. We know that you hear us and we ask that you answer our prayers. Help us to be patient as we wait for you to answer our prayers. Guide us in the path of your will for our lives. We pray all this in the name of Jesus. AMEN. (CWE)

Eucharistic Prayer

Pastor: O Holy One, from your first handful of creative clay, you have loved and shaped your Creation. You have lovingly fed and nurtured us, giving us the gift of your Torah, and the challenging guidance of your prophets.

You sent the treasure of your only child, Jesus, as a guide, model and witness. By his faithfulness even to death, he became our Savior.

When you showed us that the power of death has been broken in his resurrection, you gave us the gift of your Holy Spirit to call, gather and enlighten us in the communion of Saints. With those witnesses of every age we join our voices singing.

Words of Institution

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, gave thanks, blessed it, and gave it to His disciples, saying, “Take and eat, this is my body given for you. Eat of this in remembrance of me.” After supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to all to drink, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you, and for all people, for the forgiveness of sins. Drink of this, in remembrance of me.”

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread;
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those
who sin against us;
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Holy Communion

Blessing

Pastor: May the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bless you and keep you in God's grace. Amen.

Post-Communion Prayer

Let us pray,
God, source of strength and health,
May this meal inspire love in our hearts, and keep alive your memory and your promise. May this meal provoke a longing for truth in us that we will be never satisfied until the whole earth experiences your justice and peace. Let us share this bread and wine as Jesus taught us, knowing that our lives are forever changed by this and every breaking of bread.

Pg. 51 "More Than Words" Janet Schaffran and Pat Kozak

Benediction

Go forth in peace. Remember and rejoice in God's promise for you. Today, may you have gratitude for clean water, nutritious food, love of family and friends and a God who will never stop loving you. Bring hope to others all around the world. In the name of Jesus. AMEN
